

Fire prevention exhibition held in Sham Shui Po (with photo)

Fire Services personnel today (January 28) staged a fire prevention exhibition at Un Chau Street outside Un Chau Shopping Centre, Sham Shui Po, Kowloon. The publicity activities were part of the department's continued efforts to heighten the fire safety awareness of members of the public.

Fire safety leaflets and advisory letters were distributed to the public and occupants of commercial premises to remind them to take extra fire safety precautions during the festive season. The Mobile Publicity Unit was also parked at Un Chau Street outside Un Chau Shopping Centre for the public to visit.

Ends/Wednesday, January 28, 2015

Issued at HKT 17:11

NNNN

Divisional Officer (Building Improvement) of the Fire Services Department Mr Chan Sau-kwong (left) today (January 28) distributes fire safety pamphlets to a property manager (centre) of Un Chau Shopping Centre, Sham Shui Po.