Summary of Notes of 76th Ventilation Installations Liaison Group Meeting (held on 18.07.2024)

2	Matters arising from last meeting
2.1	FSD Circular Letter No. 2/2023 (Fire Safety Requirements for Mechanical Ventilating Systems)
	FSD advised that prior acceptance case application for use of common non-metallic accessories, including v-belt and spring mounting pad, in fan product was noted. The proposed materials of the accessories were tested with laboratory test report conforming to BS476 Part 6:1989 + A1:2009.
	FSD clarified that no prior acceptance assessment based on FSD Circular Letter No. 1/2024 would be carried out for ventilation fans and their associated parts on non-project basis. The designer and works agent / contractor of ventilating systems shall ensure that ventilation fans and associated equipment installations should meet the relevant fire safety standards and requirements as stipulated in FSD Circular Letter No. 2/2023.
2.2	e-Submission
	FSD advised that it was a good progress by the trade for adoption of e-submission of Annual Inspection Certificate (AIC) and Vent/425 form to FSD through electronic submission services (www.gov.hk (香港政府一站通)) with the use of "iAM Smart Plus" or e-certificate. The owners / contractors of ventilating system installation were highly encouraged to make their submission through the e-submission channels to FSD.
	[Post-meeting notes: The guide - "Procedures of Electronic Submission of Annual Inspection Certificate for Ventilating Systems through GovHK" has been uploaded under the subject – "Licensing and Certification / Information related to mechanical ventilating system" in FSD webpage. The guide was also given in Appendix 1 of this notes of meeting for reference.]

2.3 Registered Fire Engineer (RFE) Scheme

FSD informed that the liaison works for the RFE Scheme with the Licensing Authorities and other Government Departments would be conducted in 2024. Item would be kept in view.

3.1 Electronic Issuance System (eIS) for Letter of Compliance

FSD has launched e-Issuance System (eIS) for issuance and delivery of 11 nos. Certificates and Permits, e.g. F.S. 172, D.G. License, etc., for those application in end of May 2024. Paper signed Certificates and Permits would be replaced by digital signed pdf files. Similar eIS would be adopted for issuance and delivery of Letter of Compliance (LC) for Ventilating Systems installed in Premises related to the Licensing Authority of FEHD, which was applied to FEHD on or beyond 1.7.2024.

FSD stated that the ventilating drawings would be transmitted through the eIS from FEHD to FSD in form of digital files instead of hard copy. As such scale of the drawings should be clearly indicated by incorporating the paper size of drawing or scale ruler on the drawing. In addition, the email address of Applicant for receiving the digital LC should be also clearly indicated in the application form.
